

January 25-30, 2004

Society for Range Management Meetings, Salt Lake City, Utah

Proposed Symposium/workshop: “Is Rangeland Ecology Relevant? Research Needs for Rangeland Management Research Needs in the 21st century” To be followed by discussion of future opportunities for SRM/ESA interaction.

Section role: lead organizer and co-sponsor (with SRM)

Lead contact: Bob Budd (bbudd@TNC.ORG)

Additional contacts: Sam Fuhlendorf (fuhlend@mail.pss.okstate.edu), Jeff Herrick (jherrick@nmsu.edu)

January 25-30, 2004

Society for Range Management Meetings, Salt Lake City, Utah

Proposed Symposium/workshop: Monitoring workshop. To include a hands-on component.

Section role: co-sponsor (with SRM)

Lead contact: Jack Alexander (jack@countgrass.com)

Additional contacts: Pete Sundt (psundt@zokes.com)

January 25-30, 2004

Society for Range Management Meetings, Salt Lake City, Utah

Proposed Symposium/workshop: Drivers of GHG, extinction, consumption and human population: local, global solutions

Section role: co-sponsor

Lead contact: Lori Hidinger (lori@esa.org)

Additional contacts: contact Lori for list of speakers and organizers